

RAYMOND PRICE

1889–14.4.1917 aged 28 years

Lance-Corporal 21947 5th Battalion Grenadier Guards

Raymond was the first son of Arnold and Evelyn Price and lived on Nottingham Road. He was a regular soldier at the outbreak of war. He is recorded as having died of wounds and is buried in the Longuenesse Souvenir CWGC cemetery St Omer row V A 29. See also Charles Bowley also buried there opposite Raymond.